

Two Entrances to Miller & Rhoads' Broad St., Sixth St.

THE WEATHER—Saturday colder.

How to Save $6.50 on a $20.00 Costume.

You can do it easily.

Purchase one of our $15.00 Black and White Scotch Mixture Coats, 42 inches long, reduced to $9.50.

Finely tailored; inverted plait in the back, shoulder capes, and in-laid velvet collar. After getting the Coat let us fit you with a five dollar value, in an all-wool Black and White mixture Skirt at $3.98.

Your Suit is complete for $13.48 and you're wearing a $20.00 value.

Another such combination bargain is to be found in our 27-inch Box Coats of Blue or Brown Cheviot; double-breasted, full leg o'mutton sleeve, patch pockets, belt across the back.

$13.00 value Coat reduced to $10.00.

To match this Coat select a Brown or Blue Cheviot Skirt with tailored strap seams; finished with tabs and buttons—a $7.00 value for $5.00.

You have your Suit for $15.00 and it's worth $20.00.

Miller & Rhoads

May Manton Patterns, 10c. each, on sale in our Trimming Department.

BISHOP SPEAKS AT ST. PAUL'S

Right Rev. Robert Strange Will Preach to His Former Flock.

SOME STRIKING THEMES

Richmond Pastors Select Interesting Subjects for Discussion To-morrow.

As usual services will be most interesting in all of the city churches, and the sermons by the various ministers are well selected, embracing texts of importance.

Right Rev. Robert Strange, bishop of the Eastern Diocese of North Carolina, and formerly rector of St. Paul's Church, this city, will preach there to-morrow morning. Doubtless the congregation will give their former pastor a hearty reception, and many will be present to hear him.

Dr. Witherspoon, pastor of Grace Street Presbyterian Church, will occupy his pulpit and preach to-morrow morning, at 11 o'clock, immediately after the morning service the Lord's Supper will be observed, and the doctor will take for his morning subject "The Bread of God." At night the doctor's subject will be "Hope As An Influence on Conduct."

The pastor, Rev. J. B. Hawthorne, D. D., will preach at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. Subject of morning sermon, "A Great Purpose and the Success to Which It Leads." Evening subject, "Seeing God and the Blessedness of Such a Vision."

Dr. Smith's morning theme at the Second Baptist Church will be "Consecrated Womanhood." Evening theme, "Revelations of the Son of God."

Preaching at East End Baptist Church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 8 o'clock by Rev. E. D. Gawn. Morning subject, "The Value of Character," and in the evening the theme will be "An Invitation Received."

At Leigh Street Baptist Church, at the morning service Rev. Dr. Buchanan will talk to the people. At the evening service the pastor, Rev. M. Ashby Jones, will preach.

Evangelist J. E. Hutson will preach at the Pine Street Baptist Church next Sunday, at 11 A. M. The subject of his sermon will be "The Value of Character." Mr. Hutson will preach at 8 P. M. Subject, "A Bible Definition of Faith."

A welcome service to the members who joined the church in 1904 will be held in Randolph Street Baptist Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Several brief and appropriate addresses will be delivered and special music will be rendered. At night the pastor, Rev. W. E. Robertson, will preach on "The Way of Life and of Death."

The annual meeting of Broadus Memorial Church will be held at 11 o'clock, subject, "The Twenty-first Century Woman." At 8 P. M. the theme will be "Living Truth With Jesus."

Dr. Young's subject at Centenary Methodist Church Sunday morning, "The Elder Brother of the Prodigal Son." Evening subject, "The Wonderful Discovery of a Man by Himself."

At the Broad Street Church, Rev. George H. Spooner will preach at the morning hour upon the subject, "Keeping at It," and at the evening hour upon the subject, "Condemned to Die—Any Hope for a Murderer?"

SHEPPARD RETURNS.

Negro Nursed Rev. Samuel N. Lapsley, African Missionary.

The Washington Post of yesterday announces the arrival in that city of Rev. William H. Sheppard, a colored man, originally from Staunton, Va., who fourteen years ago went as a missionary to the Southern Presbyterian Church to the Congo field.

When Sheppard went to Africa he was accompanied by Samuel N. Lapsley, a young white man of Selma, Ala., who had volunteered for the same work. Lapsley was the son of Judge James W. Lapsley, former law partner of Senator John T. Morgan. The farrow meeting extended to Lapsley and Sheppard as they were leaving this country was at the Central Presbyterian Church, of Washington.

Mr. Lapsley, who selected and died in the African campaign, was nursed and buried by Sheppard, and the little steamer furnished by the Southern Church for the use of its missionaries on the Congo River was built in Richmond and called, as a memorial, the "Samuel N. Lapsley." That boat was lost a year or two ago, Harry Sluymaker, of Alexandria, Va., who had just joined the missionary colony, going down with it, but the Sunday school children of the Southern Church have raised $8,000, which they are now building a new boat.

Sheppard is accompanied by his wife, one of the original "Jubilee Singers."

Gets Out Ancient Books.

Speaking of the applications for books at the Congressional Library the Washington Post of yesterday says:

"Most of the statesmen are too busy to read extensively at the short session. Since the death of Senator Hoar there are no calls for Greek and Latin books, except that Representative John Lamb, of Richmond, one of the most omnivorous readers at the Capitol, asks sometimes for an ancient volume. Senator Ekins still requests on occasion a book in Spanish, which language he reads as readily as English."

Virginia Exhibit Here.

Materials composing the Virginia exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition have arrived in this city, and are being stored in a vacant store-house on Governor Street, just north of Main. The exhibits which won such high honors are valuable, and especially to the State. On completion of the State Capitol they will be placed in the hall formerly used for the House of Delegates, and there kept as the nucleus of a museum to be accumulated by the State.

To Bring Cox Back.

Governor Montague has issued a recall to make it proper according to directions, and now we can hardly do without Postum for breakfast, and care nothing at all for coffee.

"I am no longer troubled with dyspepsia; do not have spells of suffering with my stomach that used to trouble me so when I drank coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Look in each package for the famous Little Book, "The Road to Wellville."

Two Acquittals. In the Hustings Court yesterday Edward Wagner was acquitted of the charge of malicious assault on D. G. Johnson. He was also acquitted of shooting in the streets.

ALSTON CABELL IS IN THE RACE

Distinguished Richmond Lawyer and Scholar for Lieutenant-Governor.

DEMOCRAT OF PROMINENCE

Has Served His People in Council, Legislature and Other Positions.

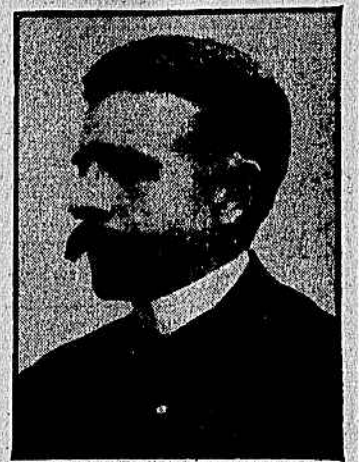

Hon. James Alston Cabell, of this city, yesterday announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant-Governor, and his friends believe he will make a fine run for the honor.

Mr. Cabell has had numerous letters from friends all over the State urging him to enter the race, and these have had much to do with influencing his announcement.

Mr. Cabell is a member of an old Virginia family. His father, Colonel Henry Collier Cabell, was a distinguished officer of artillery in the Confederate service, in whose command was the famous Howitzer Battalion. Mr. Cabell was educated at schools in Nelson county and afterwards graduated at both the Richmond College and the University of Virginia, having had three degrees conferred upon him, besides winning several important prizes. He afterwards studied in Germany. While at the University he was editor of the University Magazine and took a prominent part in athletics.

Taught in Kentucky.

He was for several years president of the old Richmond Athletic Club. After

HON. JAMES ALSTON CABELL.

Leaving the University of Virginia he was elected to a professorship in the Central University, of Kentucky, under the auspices of the Southern Presbyterian Church, and after filling that position for two years with great credit, he resigned for the purpose of entering upon the practice of law in this city. In 1884 he was elected a member of the City Council and made an excellent record as councilman, declining a reelection, which was urged upon him. In 1885 he was elected a member of the General Assembly, and was again re-elected in 1886-'87. In the Legislature he took a leading part in the debates and served as chairman of the important Committees on Library, Proprietary and General Laws.

He was also a member of the Committee on the Chesapeake and its Tributaries, Courts of Justice and sub-chairman of the Committee on Elections.

Many Other Honors. He served for about eight years as chairman of the Virginia Commission on the Centennial of the Revolution, and the State, taking a prominent part in the deliberations of that distinguished body. He had much to do with framing that valuable set of laws known as the negotiable instruments act, which has been adopted by most of the States in the Union.

Mr. Cabell was for a number of years president of the Alumni Association of Richmond College, has been president of the Sons of the Revolution, and is at this time a member of the Virginia Commandery of the Military Order of Foreign Wars, an honorary member of the Virginia Society of the Cincinnati, and an hereditary member of the North Carolina Society. He is also a member of the American Historical Association, and was for many years a member of the board of directors of the Virginia Historical Society. He is an active and honorary member of many historical and scientific organizations in this country and abroad.

Friends of the Friendless. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals held a meeting Wednesday night at No. 210 East Franklin Street. Nearly every member of the board was present. Captain Bossieux and Captain W. Ben. Palmer were appointed to investigate.

Following is agent's report: Horses and mules sent for work, un hitched and sent to stable, 31; overloaded teams, 190; horses and mules sent to be shot, 164; drivers reported for cruelty, 5; horses saved from a fire, 5; sent to hospital, 1; small animals destroyed, 33; small animals destroyed, 27; fines for cruelty, $12.50.

Mrs. Cornelia Henry Stern. A telegram was received yesterday morning announcing the death Thursday night at Rutherford, N. J., of Mrs. Cornelia Henry Stern, the widow of the late Lewis Henry Stern, of Richmond.

Mrs. Stern was the daughter of the late Dr. Norman Henry Stern, of Augusta county, and leaves surviving her four children—Mrs. Granville Burrus, of Randolph-Macon Academy, Front Royal, Va.; Mrs. C. M. Chumbley, of Lancaster, Ky.; Mr. Lane Stern, Jr., of Charlottesville, Va.; and Miss Cornelia Kinsford Stern, of Rutherford.

Call on the Banks. The State Corporation Commission has called upon the banks of the State for statements up to the close of business, on January 11th. This is in accordance with the call made upon the National Banks by the United States Treasury Department.

State Bonds Active. Transfers of State bonds are particularly active just now, business being brisk both in the Centuries and the 1890s. Between $100,000 and $200,000.

Burnette's Extract of Vanilla imparts a superior delicacy of flavor; try it; use it—Ady.

WOULD ENLARGE MURPHY'S HOTEL

Colonel Murphy Desires to Buy Cathedral to Build More Hotel Room.

SOME QUESTIONS INVOLVED

Church May Not Have Right to Dispose of the Property.

A rumor is afloat that Colonel John Murphy had made an arrangement to purchase, from the Roman Catholic Church, the present Cathedral and ecclesiastical residence on the corner of Eighth and Grace Streets. It was stated that the bishop of Richmond, Very Rev. Bishop Van De Vyver would move his official residence from the present location to the new cathedral, and that the old Cathedral might therefore be moved to some other location.

In the event of such an arrangement being completed, Colonel Murphy will build an addition to his hotel, with a handsome frontage on Grace Street.

A representative of The Times-Dispatch saw Colonel John Murphy and asked him if the rumor had any foundation.

Colonel Murphy Talks. "It is true that I have for some time been endeavoring to purchase the property now occupied by the Cathedral and the bishop's residence," said Colonel Murphy. "My plan was to enlarge my hotel and to erect a magnificent building fronting on Grace Street. I offered to move the Cathedral to the corner of Seventh and Grace Streets and to pay all costs of every kind. The proposed new building would have been far more than the old one. My offer was refused, not only for the reason that the bishop desired to retain the property, but also because there is a grave doubt whether or not the church is able to dispose of the property."

"I have therefore had to relinquish the plan."

HONOR A HERO. Capt. James E. Phillips Elected President Grays' Association.

The Richmond Grays' Veteran Association met last night and elected the following officers: Captain James E. Phillips, president; C. A. Crawford, vice-president; Alex. W. Archer, recording secretary; Louis Ramstetter, financial secretary; and Wm. A. Davis, collector; J. H. Goode, sergeant-at-arms.

Captain Phillips, who is a battle-worn veteran of fifty fields, was not present at the meeting, owing to the fact that he has been confined to his room by illness for several days. He, therefore, did not know the night of the honor that had been conferred upon him.

ARMSTRONG PARDONED.

Governor Gives Freedom to Man Declared Innocent. Governor Montague yesterday granted an absolute pardon to Zachariah Armstrong, the young white man who was sentenced to a term of seven and one-half years from Goochland county for alleged criminal assault. The man was paroled in March, 1901, but was only given an absolute pardon on yesterday.

The action of the Governor was based on a dying statement made by the young woman upon whose testimony Armstrong had been convicted declaring him to be an innocent man. The petition for pardon was prepared and presented by Attorney C. P. Cardwell, of the city, who took great interest in this case.

Indian River Oranges. Some oranges from Judge Graham's grove, on Indian River, Fla., which are probably unsurpassed in this or any other country, have reached the Times-Dispatch office. They are of the seedless variety, and are as large as grape fruit and as juicy as watermelons.

Judge Graham has made a shipment of these oranges direct from the grove to the city.

Indian River Oranges. Some oranges from Judge Graham's grove, on Indian River, Fla., which are probably unsurpassed in this or any other country, have reached the Times-Dispatch office. They are of the seedless variety, and are as large as grape fruit and as juicy as watermelons.

Judge Graham has made a shipment of these oranges direct from the grove to the city.

Indian River Oranges. Some oranges from Judge Graham's grove, on Indian River, Fla., which are probably unsurpassed in this or any other country, have reached the Times-Dispatch office. They are of the seedless variety, and are as large as grape fruit and as juicy as watermelons.

Judge Graham has made a shipment of these oranges direct from the grove to the city.

A Five Cent Lunch

A package of Uneeda Biscuit forms the basis of an ideal lunch. Ideal because they do good as well as taste good—muscle building as well as palate pleasing.

Uneeda Biscuit

are good anywhere and everywhere. Good for the child's lunch as the working man's; equally good as the basis of a luncheon or a substantial meal. You can't really understand their goodness until you try them.

5c

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

WOULD ENLARGE MURPHY'S HOTEL

Colonel Murphy Desires to Buy Cathedral to Build More Hotel Room.

SOME QUESTIONS INVOLVED

Church May Not Have Right to Dispose of the Property.

A rumor is afloat that Colonel John Murphy had made an arrangement to purchase, from the Roman Catholic Church, the present Cathedral and ecclesiastical residence on the corner of Eighth and Grace Streets. It was stated that the bishop of Richmond, Very Rev. Bishop Van De Vyver would move his official residence from the present location to the new cathedral, and that the old Cathedral might therefore be moved to some other location.

In the event of such an arrangement being completed, Colonel Murphy will build an addition to his hotel, with a handsome frontage on Grace Street.

A representative of The Times-Dispatch saw Colonel John Murphy and asked him if the rumor had any foundation.

Colonel Murphy Talks. "It is true that I have for some time been endeavoring to purchase the property now occupied by the Cathedral and the bishop's residence," said Colonel Murphy. "My plan was to enlarge my hotel and to erect a magnificent building fronting on Grace Street. I offered to move the Cathedral to the corner of Seventh and Grace Streets and to pay all costs of every kind. The proposed new building would have been far more than the old one. My offer was refused, not only for the reason that the bishop desired to retain the property, but also because there is a grave doubt whether or not the church is able to dispose of the property."

"I have therefore had to relinquish the plan."

HONOR A HERO. Capt. James E. Phillips Elected President Grays' Association.

The Richmond Grays' Veteran Association met last night and elected the following officers: Captain James E. Phillips, president; C. A. Crawford, vice-president; Alex. W. Archer, recording secretary; Louis Ramstetter, financial secretary; and Wm. A. Davis, collector; J. H. Goode, sergeant-at-arms.

Captain Phillips, who is a battle-worn veteran of fifty fields, was not present at the meeting, owing to the fact that he has been confined to his room by illness for several days. He, therefore, did not know the night of the honor that had been conferred upon him.

ARMSTRONG PARDONED.

Governor Gives Freedom to Man Declared Innocent. Governor Montague yesterday granted an absolute pardon to Zachariah Armstrong, the young white man who was sentenced to a term of seven and one-half years from Goochland county for alleged criminal assault. The man was paroled in March, 1901, but was only given an absolute pardon on yesterday.

The action of the Governor was based on a dying statement made by the young woman upon whose testimony Armstrong had been convicted declaring him to be an innocent man. The petition for pardon was prepared and presented by Attorney C. P. Cardwell, of the city, who took great interest in this case.

Indian River Oranges. Some oranges from Judge Graham's grove, on Indian River, Fla., which are probably unsurpassed in this or any other country, have reached the Times-Dispatch office. They are of the seedless variety, and are as large as grape fruit and as juicy as watermelons.

Judge Graham has made a shipment of these oranges direct from the grove to the city.

Indian River Oranges. Some oranges from Judge Graham's grove, on Indian River, Fla., which are probably unsurpassed in this or any other country, have reached the Times-Dispatch office. They are of the seedless variety, and are as large as grape fruit and as juicy as watermelons.

Judge Graham has made a shipment of these oranges direct from the grove to the city.

Indian River Oranges. Some oranges from Judge Graham's grove, on Indian River, Fla., which are probably unsurpassed in this or any other country, have reached the Times-Dispatch office. They are of the seedless variety, and are as large as grape fruit and as juicy as watermelons.

Judge Graham has made a shipment of these oranges direct from the grove to the city.

WOULD ENLARGE MURPHY'S HOTEL

Colonel Murphy Desires to Buy Cathedral to Build More Hotel Room.

SOME QUESTIONS INVOLVED

Church May Not Have Right to Dispose of the Property.

A rumor is afloat that Colonel John Murphy had made an arrangement to purchase, from the Roman Catholic Church, the present Cathedral and ecclesiastical residence on the corner of Eighth and Grace Streets. It was stated that the bishop of Richmond, Very Rev. Bishop Van De Vyver would move his official residence from the present location to the new cathedral, and that the old Cathedral might therefore be moved to some other location.

In the event of such an arrangement being completed, Colonel Murphy will build an addition to his hotel, with a handsome frontage on Grace Street.

A representative of The Times-Dispatch saw Colonel John Murphy and asked him if the rumor had any foundation.

Colonel Murphy Talks. "It is true that I have for some time been endeavoring to purchase the property now occupied by the Cathedral and the bishop's residence," said Colonel Murphy. "My plan was to enlarge my hotel and to erect a magnificent building fronting on Grace Street. I offered to move the Cathedral to the corner of Seventh and Grace Streets and to pay all costs of every kind. The proposed new building would have been far more than the old one. My offer was refused, not only for the reason that the bishop desired to retain the property, but also because there is a grave doubt whether or not the church is able to dispose of the property."

"I have therefore had to relinquish the plan."

HONOR A HERO. Capt. James E. Phillips Elected President Grays' Association.

The Richmond Grays' Veteran Association met last night and elected the following officers: Captain James E. Phillips, president; C. A. Crawford, vice-president; Alex. W. Archer, recording secretary; Louis Ramstetter, financial secretary; and Wm. A. Davis, collector; J. H. Goode, sergeant-at-arms.

Captain Phillips, who is a battle-worn veteran of fifty fields, was not present at the meeting, owing to the fact that he has been confined to his room by illness for several days. He, therefore, did not know the night of the honor that had been conferred upon him.

ARMSTRONG PARDONED.

Governor Gives Freedom to Man Declared Innocent. Governor Montague yesterday granted an absolute pardon to Zachariah Armstrong, the young white man who was sentenced to a term of seven and one-half years from Goochland county for alleged criminal assault. The man was paroled in March, 1901, but was only given an absolute pardon on yesterday.

The action of the Governor was based on a dying statement made by the young woman upon whose testimony Armstrong had been convicted declaring him to be an innocent man. The petition for pardon was prepared and presented by Attorney C. P. Cardwell, of the city, who took great interest in this case.

Indian River Oranges. Some oranges from Judge Graham's grove, on Indian River, Fla., which are probably unsurpassed in this or any other country, have reached the Times-Dispatch office. They are of the seedless variety, and are as large as grape fruit and as juicy as watermelons.

Judge Graham has made a shipment of these oranges direct from the grove to the city.

Indian River Oranges. Some oranges from Judge Graham's grove, on Indian River, Fla., which are probably unsurpassed in this or any other country, have reached the Times-Dispatch office. They are of the seedless variety, and are as large as grape fruit and as juicy as watermelons.

Judge Graham has made a shipment of these oranges direct from the grove to the city.

Indian River Oranges. Some oranges from Judge Graham's grove, on Indian River, Fla., which are probably unsurpassed in this or any other country, have reached the Times-Dispatch office. They are of the seedless variety, and are as large as grape fruit and as juicy as watermelons.

Judge Graham has made a shipment of these oranges direct from the grove to the city.

Indian River Oranges. Some oranges from Judge Graham's grove, on Indian River, Fla., which are probably unsurpassed in this or any other country, have reached the Times-Dispatch office. They are of the seedless variety, and are as large as grape fruit and as juicy as watermelons.

Judge Graham has made a shipment of these oranges direct from the grove to the city.

FINE TOBACCO SOLD YESTERDAY

Lot of Cherry Wrappers on Sale Brought the High Figure of Thirty Cents.

EXPECT LARGE RECEIPTS

Seasonable Weather and Good Prices Assure Them—An Unusually Fine Sale.

Tobacco sales for the week closed yesterday, with sales for the day of about 120,000 pounds, divided among the warehouses, as follows: Shockoe, 25,000; Shelburne's, 30,000; Crenshaw's, 25,000; and Stonehill, 10,000. Sales for the week aggregated about 400,000 pounds.

The week's sales were marked by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fillers selling below $4.00. The best of the week's sales were made by an upward trend in prices, which carried them almost up to the high level prevailing just before the slump preceding the holidays. Prices are reported as up to the highest level on common and medium fillers selling below $3.50, and on fine fill